CREST Transfer Form

Effective June 2020

Use this form to complete the transfer of foreign securities and gifts.

- If you hold more than one certificate for the same company/security, you'll need to complete only one CREST Transfer Form for all the certificates held in your name.
- If the shares are held under a different registration, each account holder must complete a separate CREST Transfer Form.

Form instructions and explanations

The information below explains what to include in each of the fields on the CREST Transfer Form.

1. Name of undertaking—the name of the security (company name) as it appears on your certificate.
2. Description of Security—the type of shares held (for example, "Ordinary shares").
3. Amount of shares or other security in words and figures—for example, "One hundred" and "100."
4. Name(s) and full address(es)—for each registered holder, the full name and address as they appear on your certificate.
5. Please sign here—original signatures of all the holders named on your certificate.
6. Full name(s) of the person(s) to whom the security is transferred—Vanguard prefills this section of the form for you.
